

US EPA ARCHIVE DOCUMENT

A permit to operate given to a metal part coating facility is in violation of applicable Federal and State regulations. In particular, applicant did not apply LAER, and increased VOC emissions were not offset by a reduction in VOC emission by existing facilities.